AWARDS FOR CHRISTMAS DISPLAYS

Baa-aa-ing live sheep in a rustic manger was chosen as first place winner in the outdoor Christmas display category by the judging team from Mattapoisett Improvement Association, headed by Samuel T. Bertram, president. The nativity scene is an arrangement by William Croft, at the end of Linhares Avenue.

Placing second is the humorous and original display at the home of Edmund V. Hickey of North Street, which also includes an attractive door decoration at the north end of the house. Third place is accorded Robert Mathieson, Jr. for his lawn display of Santa's workshop, with loading gifts into his sleigh, on Field Street.

Henry B. Dunseith of Pleasant View Gift Shop captured top honor in the commercial classification, with other noteworthy displays at The Nest, Days Tractor and Engine Supply, and Franks Market, all on Route 6. Municipal displays commanding attention are at the Fire Station where Smokey the Bear and a host of woodland animals extend Christmas greetings, to the special delight of the children. The display was set up by the Firemen's Association, Bradley L. Barrows, chairman. At Mattapoisett Town Hall, Frosty the Snowman is featured in an arrangement by Police Chief Alden Kinney. Santa Claus appears on the town wharf and the Woman's Club's lighted tree on Shipyard Park bandstand, both being visible in the bright array of lights from the town which may be seen across the harbor from a vantage point at old town landing and points on Neck Road.

Unusual doorways noted by the judges were the espalier tree at the Lloyd D. Baker home on North Street, the angel choir at the Melvin J. Miller home on Marion Road, and the W. J. Roemer home, also on Marion Road, for its picturesque simplicity. Brilliant displays were by David L. Kelley, opposite Mattapoisett Nursing Home, on North Street, complete with sound recordings, arranged especially for the delight of nursing home patients, the house decorations of the Leo Lariviere's on Church Street, and the Alfred H. Fleurent home on State Road where an American Flag in colored lights is featured.

and presenting a nativity scene in sculptured models. The "Christ of the Highway" on Route 6 is outlined in blue lights.

An unlighted banner extending the length of the front piazza of the Paul A. LeBlanc home on River Road was worded "Welcome Home Daddy", by the 10 LeBlanc children, whose father is at Andrews Air Force Base and currently is working and house hunting for his family in Washington, D. C.

An especially noteworthy display in Rochester is that of Mrs. Owen MacNays of Snipatuit Road, who has made all the decorations and trimmed her house and lawn, and flagpole with snowmen, manger, Santa Claus and deer, and candy canes.

The Improvement Association appreciated the participation of all of the townspeople. While it is only possible to mention a few, the response of all of the people all over the town contributes so much to the color and spirit of the season.

WITH THANKS & ADMIRATION

Everyone, who has visited the Post Offices of our towns in the past three weeks, and that list must include the great majority of us, cannot but marvel at the magnificent job done by the Postmasters and their crews. The major magic of the season is not performed at the North Pole. We depend on these people at the Post Office to make Christmas the wonderful day of communication that it is. The avalanche of cards, the packages that we mail so casually is multiplied by the thousands and becomes a mountain in these few short weeks. At times, the inundated Post Office looks as if it would take a month to untangle and distribute. In spite of everything, the last card is delivered. The last package, which was mailed too late, reaches its destination on time. It is a marvel. Every year we see it done. Every year we don't believe it. One thing we do believe though, and that is without this tremendous effort, our holiday would not be the same. We know that we speak for all of the three towns when we thank our friends at the Post Office for a job so well done.

We would like to express our thanks and sympathy to Mrs. Alice M. Corey, postmaster of Mattapoisett, who lost her husband in the final week before Christmas. In spite of her loss and personal grief, Mrs. Corey carried on through the final rush and it must have been very difficult indeed. We believe that we express the feelings of everyone in Mattapoisett when we express our admiration for her efforts in spite of her personal tragedy.

Finally, we would like to congratulate Mattapoisett's "Ken" Wood who is retiring from the Post Office. This is the final Christmas rush for Ken on the delivery side of the counter. From now on, he relaxes and sends mail with the rest of us. There have been a lot of miles racked up on the roads of the town and his familiar face will be missed on the route. From all of us, we wish Ken many happy years ahead to enjoy his retirement with thanks for his many years of service to us all. Certainly, he has a host of friends in Mattapoisett.

TOWN HALL NEWS

Richard A. Whalon, North Street, has been appointed a part time police officer in Mattapoisett.

A letter from the Attorney General of Massachusetts said that the State is going to file the Rock Salt Antitrust Litigation on behalf of all cities and towns.

A letter from Division of Waterways on repairs to Short Wharf showed a total estimate cost of $66,000. Mattapoisett will be responsible for 50% or $33,000. A final contract document for advertising will be prepared as soon as funds are available from the town, to be voted on at the annual town meeting. An article for $9,000. will go into the town warrant as $24,000. is already available.

Roscoe Barstow was drawn as juror for Criminal Sitting in Brockton, starting January 12, 1966.

A letter was received from the Reservation Golf Club for a petition to improve and

DR. MCBRATNEY TO SPEAK AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Dr. J. Greer McBratney of South Dartmouth will be the guest speaker at the January 5th meeting of the Rochester Woman's Club, and he will tell of his experiences while on the ship Hope. Mrs. Everett Hardy will preside. Each member may bring a guest.

Highlights of the holiday season were a large Christmas party for Rochester children which drew a record attendance this year, and the annual Christmas dinner and party for members.

Mrs. George Church and Mrs. Greenwood Hartley, Jr. were co-chairmen for the children's party. Mrs. Margaret Benner and Mrs. Alberta King were hostesses for the delicious smorgasbord for the annual dinner.

The clubhouse was beautifully decorated with greens and a large tree.

Entertainment for the children was provided by Landry the Magician. Santa distributed gifts. Refreshments of cookies and punch were served to all.

Twenty-seven members attended the dinner meeting and exchanged gifts. Mrs. Leo classifications: those that can be carried out immediately, those that can be carried out in the near future, those that require long-range planning, and those that the administration and staff find impractical or invalid. The association will ask for reports of progress at the end of two years and later at the conclusion of a five year period.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

The way elected officials refer to appropriations in the billions constantly astounds me. Congressman Melvin Laird (R.-Wis.) reports that the 89th Congress obligated $127,000,000,000.00 in spending! He provides the following illustration to demonstrate the magnitude of a single billion. "If a man gave his wife one billion dollars, and told her to go out and spend it on clothes, at the rate of $1,000.00 a day, and not return till she spent it all, he would not see her for 2739 years!"

Season's Greetings

To Our Friends:

At this happy holiday season, we are glad to put aside the routine of business to extend to you our good will and appreciation of our association during the year.

One of the genuine pleasures in doing business is the friendships that are developed and we are grateful for yours.

We take this opportunity, therefor, to extend to you the Season's Greetings with the profound hope that the New Year will bring you a full measure of Good Health, Happiness and Prosperity.

Sincerely yours,
